

A Sample Letter for the Federal Attorney General

The Federal Attorney-General
Parliament House
Federal Parliament
Canberra
ACT 2600

Dear Sir,

I am writing because I am very concerned about the rights of the unborn child, particularly since the Victorian Government has passed a law making abortion up to almost the point of birth to be lawful.

I understand that you can override this law and I believe that you should. Our government signed the United Nations Convention on the Right of the Child in 1989 which includes the rights of the unborn child.

I understand that the states cannot make laws contrary to Federal Laws or treaties. So I am asking that you do all that you can to protect unborn Australians, from being killed, by overriding this Victorian law.

Thank you.

Yours in good faith,
