It is really exciting this year as we will be hosting 2 events on the same day.

1. for Parents {dad or mum or carer} and Children
2. Ladies only

Things to know don't like Gingerbread? Come anyway. Come to help or so you can invite your friends and family.

- Not crafty or creative it doesn't matter! Tell your friends. No talent required. You can't muck it up.
- All houses look great with lollies and a dusting of icing sugar.
- Invite your friends – it's easy! People will want to come because it is relaxed, friendly and enjoyable. Make a list of who you could invite and start mentioning it.

The invitation Give it out! Put your name and phone number on the invitation so the people you invite can contact you to book a place for them. Tickets need to be paid for when RSVPing to be sure not to miss out on seats.

Short talk don't forget to mention to people you invite this is an event being put on by your church and that there will be a short talk before we make our houses.

Help is gladly accepted. Please consider how you could help. See the list attached and consider if you can volunteer for a job or 2.
