

Prayer

- Praise God for the students who have graduated. Particularly pray for the three Certificate graduates who will become Pastors: Moses as he returns to Maasailand, Komba to Nyumba ya Mungu, and Noel to Babati.
- Thank God for the faithful believers in Nduruma, and pray that they will trust in Him for their every need.
- Please pray for the right people to join Jackson in the next semester intake of students.
- Pray for patience as we await our house's completion.

Mungu Ishi Mahafali!

What a privilege to celebrate Graduation with the nine graduating students and their families and friends. There was so much joy at the accomplishment. In a five and a half hour ceremony, students were presented with speeches, songs, prayers, garlands, gifts, cards, hugs and of course their certificates. Please pray for those returning to continue their studies with the Certificate course, and those returning to their villages to take up ministries there.

Tips for visiting a village church!

Last Sunday we set off to visit Jackson's church in the village of Nduruma. Here are a few things we noted: DO take a 4WD and revise difficult terrains the day before; DON'T expect roads. DO feel humbled at the enthusiastic welcome; DON'T be surprised at the increased number of people in the car after each stop. DO enjoy being out in God's creation for church, complete with chickens and cows passing by; DON'T expect walls. DO expect to have to say a few words (Well done Mike for his first Kiswahili Mini-sermon); DON'T think that services are any shorter than the usual 2-3 hours. DO take sandpit toys to keep the kids entertained in the dirt; DON'T take books and indoor toys. DO bid at the auction of the fruit after the service; DON'T take it all home. DO praise God for the faithful believers who meet together each week to glorify him! DO praise God for Jackson and his enthusiasm to commence the Evangelists course at Mungu Ishi in the new semester.

New friends!

What a wonderful answer to prayer: God has provided us with many new friends at and around Mungu Ishi. Please thank God with us for Mchungaji Joseph and Mwalimu Dora who are helping us with our language. Thank God for the opportunity Katie has to read the bible with Dora. Thank God that Harry and Miri have made friends with Sarah and Penweli who also live at the college (pictured). We are really enjoying living as part of this loving community. Please pray we will be godly examples, wise in our words and be able to spur on those around us.
